· TEEN PROGRAMS AND SERVICES ·

Adolescent Family Life Program 4704 Roseville Road, Suite 101; North Highlands 95660 Case management for pregnant or parenting teens, ages 12-17, including boys. Medical, educational, and legal services. Child development education and parenting classes also provided.	334-0266
Birth & Beyond Teen birth control & substance abuse; home visitation.	498-1000
Cal-Learn Program 4704 Roseville Rd., Ste. 101; NH 95660 Services for pregnant or parenting adolescents under 19 years without high school diploma. Must be Cal-Works.	334-0188
Diogenes Youth Services and Safe House 9837 Folsom Blvd., Ste L; Services for runaway, homeless, abandoned, abused and neglected youth, including crisis resolution, counseling, support groups, health education, emergency shelter and transitional housing.	24-Hour Hotline 800-339-7177
Elk Grove Unified School District Cal-Safe programs. Classes & support services for pregnant/parenting teens.	Valley High School: 681-7577 Daylor High School: 427-5428
Folsom Cordova Unified School District Adolescent Parent Program; Curb to curb service; childcare	638-8747
Grant Joint Union High School District Pacific High School Cal-Safe program. Classes & support services for pregnant/parenting teens	286-1947
National Runaway Switchboard Crisis intervention, counseling, confidential message center for kids and adults.	1-800-621-4000 24-hour
Sacramento City Unified School District Alternative Schools for pregnant/parenting teens under 18.	277-6767
San Juan Unified School District Sierra Nueva High School School age parenting, on site childcare, Lamaze classes, support	971-7015
Teen Safety Net (Chemical Dependency Center for Women) 1507 21st St.; Provides substance abuse treatment, support services, and food outreach services to homeless teens.	448-2951
Teen Success Program – Planned Parenthood Weekly support groups for parenting teens. Various locations.	446-5037 ext 138
Wind Youth Center 300 Ahern St.; Nurturing, hot meals, showers, laundry, and emergency clothing and shelter to homeless or at-risk youth.	443-8333